

Our Ref:
Enquiries:

23 August 2007

Nyoongar Kadadjiny Kulark Kart, the Aboriginal Programs Centre at the Leederville Campus of Central TAFE have been providing training for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students for many years and has developed a reputation for providing culturally inclusive training and support services for Indigenous students.

Students enrolled at Leederville campus have access to a common area enhanced by a beautiful Nyoongar Seasons bush tucker garden called 'Sense of Place', a student resource area, a computer lab equipped with current and relevant software as well as many other services available to students at Central TAFE.

Courses for 2007 are:

Semester 2 2007

- ✚ Certificate III (Police /Public Service or Transit Officer Preparation)
- ✚ Certificate II in Horticulture (Community Based Course)
- ✚ Certificate I in Construction (Community Based Course)
- ✚ Certificate II in Construction(Community Based Course)

NOTE: The courses offered are delivered by experienced culturally inclusive lecturers who have undertaken Indigenous Specific Cross Cultural Training therefore developed strategies to cater for Indigenous ways of learning.

Please call 9202 4745 for enrolment information

25 Aberdeen Street, Perth WA 6000. Locked Bag 6, Northbridge WA 6865.

Tel: within Australia 1300 300 822 Outside Australia (618) 9427 1055

Fax: (618) 9427 1999

Email: central@perth.training.wa.gov.au

www.central.wa.edu.au