

SORRY DAY

25TH MAY 2007

CULTURAL, EDUCATIONAL AND SPORTING CARNIVAL

Sorry Day is an opportunity for Australia to remember and express its sorrow for the whole tragic stolen generation event, and celebrate the beginning of a new understanding. In collaboration with the School of Indigenous Studies at the University Of Western Australia (UWA) the Future Footprints program invites all Indigenous students to attend a day of activities aimed at recognizing Sorry Day while at the same time allowing students to explore a university setting. The agenda for the day will include a ceremony acknowledging Sorry Day, a mixture of sporting activities, a tour of the Human Movement Department and a BBQ. It has also been organised for Indigenous university students currently studying at UWA to participate in the day providing a great opportunity for students to network with role models.
