

AISWA IT Resources Acceptable Use Policy - External Users, In-Person PL Event

The IT Resources Acceptable Use - External Parties policy defines the standard of acceptable use of AISWA IT resources and applies to all visitors to AISWA and external PL event attendees who may need to use AISWA computing equipment and/or resources.

It should be read in conjunction with the Terms and Conditions, below, that relate specifically to users attending AISWA PL events in person.

AISWA Website Terms and Conditions

This Website may be used only for lawful purposes relating to the Association of Independent Schools of WA (AISWA). AISWA specifically prohibits any use of the Website, and all users agree not to use the website, for any purposes other than designated by AISWA, including but not limited to:

1. Using any device, software or routine to interfere or attempt to interfere with the proper working of this website or any activity being conducted on this site.
2. Taking any action that imposes an unreasonable or disproportionately large load on this website's infrastructure.
3. If you have a password allowing access to the non-public area of this Website, disclosing to or sharing your password with any third parties or using your password for any unauthorised purpose.
4. Using or attempting to use any engine, software, tool, agent or other device or mechanism (including without limitation browsers, spiders, robots, avatars or intelligent agents) to navigate or search this website other than the commonly recognised search engine and search agents, and other than generally available third party web browsers (e.g., Firefox, Safari, Chrome, Edge or Internet Explorer).
5. Attempting to decipher, decompile, disassemble or reverse engineer any of the software comprising or in any way making up a part of this website.
6. Aggregating, copying or duplicating in any manner any of the website content or information available from this website.
7. Framing of or linking to any of the website content or information available from this website.
8. The storage of information, data, or files related to pornography, gambling, alcohol, weapons, or software or other intellectual property piracy.
9. Participating in a denial-of-service attack against this site or against any other web site or computer environment by using this site.

10. Collecting or attempting to collect any information of others, including passwords and account or other information, or providing to or transmitting through this site any material that is unlawful or violates the rights of others.
11. Engaging in any screen scraping or data acquisition and consolidation.
12. Copying or adapting the HTML, ASP.NET, VB.NET, XML, JavaScript or any other dynamic code that AISWA creates to generate any website content or the pages making up this website.
13. Infringing the intellectual property rights of others in any way.
14. Making any unauthorised commercial use of this website.
15. Using members' contact details for any purpose other than for the purpose of this website.

Site Security Rules

16. Users are prohibited from violating or attempting to violate the security of this website, including, without limitation, (a) accessing data not intended for such user or logging into a server or account which the user is not authorised to access, (b) attempting to probe, scan or test the vulnerability of a system or network or to breach security or authentication measures without proper authorisation, (c) attempting to interfere with service to any user, host or network, including, without limitation, via means of submitting a virus to this website, overloading, "flooding", "spamming", "mailbombing" or "crashing", or (d) forging any TCP/IP packet header or any part of the header information in any e-mail or newsgroup posting.
17. Violations of network security may result in civil or criminal liability. The company will investigate occurrences that may involve such violations and may involve, and cooperate with, law enforcement authorities in prosecuting users who are involved in such violations.

User risk and responsibility

18. Your use of this site is at your sole risk. The site is provided on an "as-is" and "as available" basis. AISWA reserves the right to restrict or terminate your access to the site or any feature or part thereof at any time without notice.
19. You are solely responsible for the data and information that you input or upload to the website, including but not limited to your personal information. You represent and warrant that the information submitted by you through this website is your own information and is complete, accurate and truthful, and you agree to hold AISWA and its officers, directors, members, employees, agents, and representatives harmless from any claims arising out of your information submitted to this website that is inaccurate or untruthful.

AISWA Internet Acceptable Use Policy - External Users

1. Internet systems are the property of AISWA. The organisation reserves the right to monitor sites/addresses visited by internal and external parties for any purpose related to maintaining the integrity of the network or the rights of the organisation or other users or for any other reasonable purpose.
2. All users should be aware that any information, software, or graphics on the Internet may be protected by Copyright Law regardless of whether a copyright notice appears.
3. Internet access should be conducted in a responsible and professional manner reflecting the organisation's commitment to honest, ethical and non discriminatory practice. Any use that violates Commonwealth, State law or regulation is expressly prohibited.
4. The use of AISWA's internet connection to access, transmit, store, display, or request obscene, pornographic, erotic, racist, sexist or other offensive material (including messages, images, video, or sound) is prohibited. Any use that is deemed to adversely affect or otherwise bring into disrepute the organisation is prohibited.
5. External parties must only use the logon ID and password as provided by the Information Technology Network and Office Systems Administrator. They are then responsible for all activity on their logon ID and must report any known or suspected compromise of their ID to the Information Technology Network and Office Systems Administrator. Unauthorised attempts to circumvent data security schemes, identify or exploit security vulnerabilities, or decrypt secure data are prohibited.
6. Knowingly or recklessly running or installing (or causing another to run or install) a program intended to damage or place an excessive load on a computer network is viewed as a very serious offence and is prohibited.
7. Forging the source of electronic communications, altering system data used to identify the source of messages or otherwise obscuring the origination of communications is prohibited.
8. AISWA will not be responsible for the misuse of the Internet or electronic mail by any external parties.
