

AATE/ALEA English Literacy National Conference 2018

31 January deadline for Call for Presenters

A reminder that the Call for Presentations for the Perth Conference is due to close on 31 January 2018.

The Conference will be held at the Perth Convention Centre, 8-11 July 2018.

If you haven't already done so, we hope you will consider submitting - details below and at this link.

AATE and ALEA invite applications to present a 60 or 25 minute Workshop or a 25 minute Research Paper to assist English and literacy educators explore our Conference Strands:

The Art of English:

- English as an Art – English as a spoken and written language, and encompasses the many Englishes that are present in Australia.
- English and the Arts – the relationship between spoken and written English, the dramatic, performance and visual arts, and literary works, in the classroom.
- The Art of Teaching English – the pedagogical approaches to teaching the subject English.

We also offer a special stream for Teacher Educators and, through the support of the Copyright Agency, a stream of discussions around literary production and creative writing. Abstracts are encouraged for these areas also.

We ask that you submit an abstract of no more than 200 words outlining your presentation, making sure you address the Art of English theme, and a short biography to appear in the conference program.

Please see all the details, including conditions and how to submit, on the Conference website. (Note that presenters who are accepted will be responsible for all costs relating to their attendance at the conference).

The Conference Committee looks forward to your contributions to supporting and inspiring literacy educators across Australia and beyond. Please read further for specific details or contact the conference organisers if you require further information.
