

Department of Primary Industries and Regional Development
Department of Training and Workforce Development
Department of Education

Education in primary industries through Year 7/8 HASS, Science & Technologies

FREE professional learning opportunity.
Preparing students for futures in primary industries in Western Australia.

Don't miss this professional learning opportunity to explore
HASS, Science & Technologies
from a fresh perspective

Inspire your students to be part of WA's booming primary industries!

- Deliver curriculum in a practical, local primary industries context.
- Make connections for students between primary industries and the world they live, including solving global problems, such as, food security and climate change.
- Explore rewarding, diverse and future focused career opportunities for your students.
- Network with local industry experts.

fisheries

agriculture

forestry

fibre

food

Cultivating the future of agriculture through your
LEARNING AREA

FREE

The WA primary industry sector of agriculture, fibre, fisheries, food, forestry and horticultural enterprises, contribute more than $10+ Billion annually to the State's economy.

Presented by: PRIMED Leaders North Metropolitan
Date: Friday 17 September 2021

Venue: WA Fisheries and Marine Research Laboratories
39 Northside Drive, HILLARYS

Contact: emma.guest@education.wa.edu.au

Register: <https://plis.det.wa.edu.au/?EventID=43308>
(Education Department schools)

<https://plis.det.wa.edu.au/public.aspx?EventID=43308>
(Independent and Catholic Schools)

In this workshop you will:

- explore the suite of relevant curriculum resources aligned to the Western Australian curriculum;
- familiarise yourself with the primary industries businesses in the local region;
- engage in practical teaching and learning experiences;
- connect with primary industries to develop incursion and excursion opportunities;
- network with other teachers in your region; and
- collaborate with others to plan and devise programs that explore primary industries in your region.

Registration Your Interest

By Monday, 6th September 2021