

2018 WORLD TEACHERS' DAY AWARDS

UNA Association of Australia recognises outstanding teacher contributions to Global Citizenship Education. Nominations for the 2018 Awards close on 7 September.

The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation (UNESCO) inaugurated World Teachers' Day in 1994. It commemorates the 5 October 1966 joint signing of the UNESCO/ILO Recommendation on the Status of Teachers. In adopting this recommendation, governments automatically recognised the importance of competent, qualified and motivated teachers in society. Australia celebrates World Teachers' Day on the last Friday in October.

A people's movement promoting the aims and ideals of the United Nations through education and awareness

GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP EDUCATION is an integrated approach to teaching and learning that develops a sense of belonging to a broader community and common humanity. It includes education for human rights, peace, multicultural communities and sustainable development.

GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP EDUCATION develops student understanding of the UN 2030 Global Goals for Sustainable Development and empowers students to be active citizens in a complex and uncertain world.
