

WWC Checks in Sport and Recreation: The Essentials

Attend a free workshop to learn how to comply with your WWC Check obligations.

This free session is presented by the WWC Screening Unit (Department for Communities) and the City of Albany and is specifically aimed at people who manage WWC Checks in sporting and recreation clubs.

This interactive workshop will cover:

- the features of a WWC Check;
- who needs a WWC Check;
- managing adverse decisions; and
- your record keeping requirements and your obligations.

Date: 27 August 2020

Time: 6 - 7:30pm

Location: Centennial Stadium, 156 Lockyer Avenue, Albany

To register your attendance:

- visit the Events page on the WWC Check website www.workingwithchildren.wa.gov.au
- email WWCEvents@cpfs.wa.gov.au; or
- call (08) 6217 8100.

Places are strictly limited.
