

AUSSIE OPTIMISM: Train-The-Trainer 2024

Learn to train others in the Aussie Optimism Program

THE AUSSIE OPTIMISM TRAIN-THE-TRAINER PROGRAM

- Learn about and become an accredited trainer in the Aussie Optimism program
- Learn about mental health and the prevention of mental health difficulties
- 4-day workshop held at Curtin University
- Fully funded by the Mental Health Commission WA

APPLICATIONS ARE NOW OPEN FOR THE AUSSIE OPTIMISM TRAIN-THE-TRAINER PROGRAM IN JUNE 2024

THE AUSSIE OPTIMISM PROGRAM

Developed at Curtin University, Aussie Optimism is an evidence-based mental health promotion program for children and adolescents from Kindy to Year 8.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

- School-based learning delivered by teachers, psychologists, or support staff
- 10 weekly sessions per year, designed for use in whole classes or small groups
- Mapped to the Western Australian and National HPE curriculum (and EYLF for Kindy)
- Develops emotional literacy, social skills, positive thinking skills, and coping skills
- Teacher training workshops available at Curtin University and at local schools

WHAT'S THE EVIDENCE?

Our research shows associations with:

WHAT DO AUSSIE OPTIMISM TRAINERS DO?

- Represent the Aussie Optimism Program in their school or organisation
- Present at least one Aussie Optimism training workshop per year in their education region, service area or at Curtin University
- Support and coach school staff in AO program implementation
- May run the classroom programs with students

THE AUSSIE OPTIMISM TRAIN-THE-TRAINER PROGRAM

Aussie Optimism currently receives funding from the Mental Health Commission WA to deliver the train-the-trainer program and provide resources for teachers to implement the programs in schools.

The Aussie Optimism Train-the-Trainer program is delivered over four days:

Day 1	Day 2	Day 3	Day 4
<ul> <li>The Aussie         Optimism         Program         </li> <li>The rationale for this program</li> <li>Social-emotional learning and teaching</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Aussie Optimism in lower primary school (K-3)</li> <li>Discussing emotions with children</li> </ul>	Aussie Optimism in years 4-6	<ul> <li>Aussie Optimism in high school (years 7 &amp; 8)</li> <li>Training, coaching and implementation</li> </ul>

AUSSIE OPTIMISM TRAINERS:

- are the front line of the Aussie Optimism Program. They represent Aussie Optimism in schools and other community organisations
- sustain the integrity and quality of the program
- are expected to deliver Aussie Optimism workshops in their entirety with fidelity and integrity to the materials
- provide coaching and support to teachers who implement the programs in schools
- · may deliver the programs themselves in classes, small groups or one-on-one
- are expected to deliver at least one training workshop per year
- are trained and supported by the Aussie Optimism research team at Curtin University
- are encouraged to join a network of Aussie Optimism trainers, and attend the annual Aussie
   Optimism Steering Committee Meeting at the end of each year

WANT MORE INFORMATION?

Contact: Maryanne McDevitt, Aussie Optimism Program Coordinator

Phone: 9266 2757

Email: maryanne.cheng@curtin.edu.au OR aussie.optimism@curtin.edu.au

The upcoming program will be held at Curtin University from Tuesday 28th May until Friday 31st May 2024

HOW TO APPLY

 Send us a recent copy of your CV and a statement addressing each of the selection criteria listed on the next page

APPLICATION DEADLINE: Friday 26th April 2024, 5pm

SELECTION CRITERIA FOR AUSSIE OPTIMISM TRAINERS

Essential

- 1. Enthusiasm for promoting child and adolescent social-emotional wellbeing
- 2. Interest in developing students' and school staff knowledge, attitudes and skills in mental health
- 3. Confidence and skills to present training workshops to school staff at school or regional level
- 4. Commitment to maintaining the integrity and quality of the Aussie Optimism materials
- 5. Understanding of outcome focused education
- 6. Demonstrated support from your line manager to conduct at least one Aussie Optimism workshop per year, either at your school, another school or at Curtin University

Desirable

- 1. Teaching or student support experience (min. 2 years)
- 2. Good public relations skills
- 3. Accepted within the school culture
- 4. Previous experience in conducting professional learning in schools
- 5. Confidence to coach and support teachers in program implementation

Please provide contact details of your line manager who can provide a reference on your behalf, and confirm your availability to deliver at least one PD per year.

Please email your complete application to: maryanne.cheng@curtin.edu.au
Please submit your application no later than 5pm on Friday 26th April 2024