Leading Pastoral Care in Schools

AISWA contacts:	Janet Wilmot
Course facilitators:	Janet Wilmot and Brian Plowman
	Brian was Deputy Head at a large Independent school for over 30 years and has recently retired as Director of Well-being. He has developed Pastoral Care programs which have been acknowledged for 'Excellence' by ACER. Brian has been described by Dr Michael Carr-Gregg as 'someone you want caring for your people'. Brian is one of four Ambassadors who coordinate the RUOK program in Western Australia.
Cost:	$75
Date:	Wednesday 27 April
Time:	9.00am to 12.00pm
Venue:	AISWA, Seminar Room, 1 st Floor, 41 Walters Drive, Osborne Park

Who is this program for?

School leaders and health champions who are dedicated to the notion of building affordable staff, student and community wellness capacity.

Please note this is an introductory course which will develop according to interest.

What will this program cover?

This half day professional learning workshop will provide a narrative of the genesis of a well-being program, the obstacles faced, how they were overcome and 'how to' advice to build a foundation of well-being among staff which will change the culture of your school.

Participants will have the opportunity to build a school model of wellness and to establish networks which offer support to maintain momentum. In addition, there will be some discussion in how well-being can be integrated into strategic plans and the AITSL Standards.
