The Association of Independent Schools of New South Wales developed this comprehensive training package to assist schools in forming appropriate responses to child protection matters.

The training focuses on schools developing a culture of safety as a defining feature of a Child Safe Organisation. The package assists schools with mitigating risk and enhancing systemic response to inappropriate and unprofessional behavior, and most importantly, about supporting the community to become and promote a safe environment for children.

Topics that are dealt with in the training include:

- Child Safe Organisations
- Understanding Child Abuse
- Developing a Culture of Safety, including Values, Behaviours and Culture
- Legislation
- Safer Recruitment in Education
- Policy, Procedures, Code of Conduct and Professional Boundaries
- Self-Audit of the School

DEALS WITH NEW SCHOOL
REGISTRATION STANDARDS

This training is designed for leadership and involves considerable case study analysis and opportunity for school plan development. It is highly recommended that several leaders, if not the whole leadership team, attend. You may also wish to consider inviting a member of the Governing Body!
