

Teaching in an Independent School

Speak with the Principals

Informal Discussion Sessions

Find out what Principals are really looking for when employing teachers

For practising teachers, as well as newly-qualified teachers, who would like to know more about teaching in Independent Schools.

Independent Schools include Primary and Secondary schools, Catholic and other Church-affiliated schools and other non-Government schools.

Speak with teachers already working in the Independent sector

Note:

A participant handout including a section on current employment opportunities will be provided to those who attend the seminar
