

Purposeful Pedagogies: Global Competencies in Action

Action Learning Project

An interdisciplinary Professional Learning experience for teachers of the Humanities, English, Languages, Science, The Arts and Technologies that is socially purposeful, exploring real world issues from the WA Curriculum and at least one Cross-curriculum Priority. Teachers will demonstrate professional growth by documenting their teaching and learning journey, and Students will produce a digital resource or product to pitch their evidence-based perspective on a global issue and in doing so, demonstrate their Global Competencies such as Creative and Critical thinking, ICT capabilities, Ethical and Intercultural Understanding.

Learning outcomes

Participating teachers will model Global competencies in creating a project that:

- supports the implementation of the Western Australian Curriculum and the broader outcomes of the Australian Curriculum and the Alice Springs (Mparntwe) Declaration.
- follows a Project-Based Learning or Problem-Based Learning (PBL) approach
- demonstrates a sustainable teaching and learning process, including assessment tasks
- creates a quality digital resource (based on a global issue) to be published and shared with other education professionals in Western Australia and the wider global community

AITSL National Professional Teaching Standards for Teachers

Standards addressed directly in this professional learning:

- 1.1 Physical, social and intellectual development and characteristics of students
- 2.1 Content and teaching strategies of the learning area
- 2.6 Information and Communication Technologies (ICT)
- 3.1 Establish challenging learning goals
- 3.4 Select and use resources
- 6.2 Engage in professional learning and improve practice
- 6.4 Apply professional learning and improve student learning
- 7.4 Engage with professional teaching networks and broader communities

Who can apply?

AISWA Teachers - Primary and Secondary (Year 3 - 10)

Creative and critical thinkers who are looking to expand their professional and personal learning skills with like-minded educators. Interdisciplinary teaching teams and specialist teachers are encouraged to apply.

It is expected that teachers registering for this project will attend all workshops, online and school-based meetings, suggested webinars and will be fully committed to the Aims and Learning Outcomes of this project.

Successful applicants will each receive the following texts, included in the resource pack distributed at Workshop 1:

- The Power of Us by David Price (2020)
- The Power of Inquiry: Teaching and Learning with Curiosity, Creativity and Purpose in the contemporary classroom by Kath Murdoch (2015)
- The Power of Inquiry Study Guide by Kath Murdoch
- The Power of Making Thinking Visible: Practices to engage and empower all learners by Ron Ritchhart and Mark Church (2020)

Cost: If your Expression of Interest is accepted, the registration fee will be $300 per participant, which includes 4 texts and PBL resources, a full day workshop with Kath Murdoch (May 21), and all other AISWA PLs associated with this Action Learning Project, at no extra cost.
