

Department of Primary Industries and Regional Development
Department of Training and Workforce Development
Department of Education

Education in local industries through Year 9 HASS, Science & Technologies

FREE professional learning opportunity.

Preparing students for futures in primary industries in Western Australia.

Don't miss this professional learning opportunity to explore
HASS, Science & Technologies
from a fresh perspective

Inspire your students to be part of WA's booming primary industries of agriculture, food, fibre, fisheries and forestry!

- Deliver practical and local curriculum.
- Make connections for students between primary industries and the world they live.
- Explore rewarding, diverse and future focused career opportunities for your students.
- Network with local industry experts.

fisheries

agriculture

forestry

fibre

food

PRIMED for the food, fibre, fisheries and forestry industries.

FREE

The WA primary industry sector of agriculture, fibre, fisheries, food, forestry and horticultural enterprises, contribute more than $10+ Billion annually to the State's economy.

Presented by: PRIMED Leaders North Metropolitan

Date: Thursday 26th May 2022, 3.30 - 4.30pm

Online Venue: Webex

Contact: darren.smith2@education.wa.edu.au

Register: <https://plis.education.wa.edu.au/?EventID=47867>

(Department of Education schools)

<https://plis.education.wa.edu.au/public.aspx?EventID=47867>

(Independent and Catholic schools)

In this workshop you will:

- explore the suite of relevant curriculum resources aligned to the Western Australian curriculum;
- familiarise yourself with the primary industries businesses in the local region;
- engage in practical teaching and learning experiences;
- connect with primary industries to develop incursion and excursion opportunities;
- network with other teachers in your region; and
- collaborate with others to plan and devise programs that explore primary industries in your region.

Register by

24th May 2022