ROLE

Chrysalis School is seeking an innovative and passionate Montessori primary teacher.

We are looking for a self-directed teacher who takes pride in creating and sustaining the highest-quality educational environment to nurture the creative potential of each student and inspire the joy and love of learning.

EXPECTED TEACHER DUTIES

1. To plan and implement programs based on the Montessori National Curriculum and the West Australian Curriculum.
2. To implement the educational philosophy of Chrysalis Montessori School.
3. To uphold the values of the School and responsibilities under child protection legislation and protocols, the impacts of abuse and protective interventions on the care and education of children.
4. To have a full understanding and knowledge of the Staff Code of Conduct, Child safe Framework and all Chrysalis policies and procedures and adhere to them to ensure safety for self, children, parents and other staff.
5. To observe, reflect and plan specific interaction and learning experiences for individuals and groups of children.
6. To prepare and organise learning materials to meet the needs, interests and strengths of the children.
7. To provide specialised or differentiated programs for students with diverse needs in consultation with the support teacher.
8. To observe and keep records of the state of physical and emotional wellbeing of the children in his/her care, and to bring any concerns to the attention of the Principal.
9. To keep parents regularly informed on their child's progress regarding their academic, social and emotional development.
10. To ensure children are adequately supervised during class times and (as required) break times.
11. To operate in a collaborative learning environment, based on reflective practice, shared strategies, planning and professional discussion.
12. To contribute to the development of best practice and innovative teaching strategies through constructive involvement in staff meetings, informal staff discussions, professional development and colleague mentoring.
13. To be open to receiving feedback and strive for continuous improvement.
14. To maintain accurate records of children's educational progress, personal development and school attendance.
15. To supervise Education Assistants and parent helpers as required.
16. To ensure lessons are adequately prepared before the commencement of each class.
17. To arrive punctually and to remain on the premises during the agreed hours of duty.
18. To ensure rooms are left in a satisfactory state of order at the end of each session.
19. To report and document any significant incidents or accidents.
20. To participate in the wider community of Chrysalis Montessori School as required in activities outside normal school hours (e.g. Parent interview evenings, parent education and school events).
21. To be available for staff meetings and parent interviews, at mutually agreeable times.
